I had the privilege of attending the recent pro-bono reception hosted at the Bar Association. It was really wonderful to connect with old friends and colleagues and meet some of our younger members of the bar as well. In his remarks, President Judge Richard Lewis highlighted the fact that many of those in attendance were more senior members of the bar. Judge Lewis implored all of us in attendance to continue to spread the word about the need for and the benefit of pro bono legal services.

I second Judge Lewis' observations and urge not just all of you to continue to accept pro bono legal assignments but also to encourage your colleagues, especially junior members of the bar, to do the same. I can imagine that young lawyers may be uneasy about venturing into an area of the law where they may feel they lack the requisite experience. While that concern is not unreasonable, please assure them that Sandy Ballard and the folks at legal services are there to assist them and that the members of the bench, both at the county level and at the district magisterial level, are also there to ensure that all Dauphin County citizens have access to justice in our community and they will work with you to meet the legal needs of those that need our help the most.

I was clearly premature in the last newsletter in wishing everyone a Happy Spring, but I feel confident that as we head into May, it is finally starting to warm up and I hope everyone will soon be enjoying the warm weather and all that Central Pennsylvania has to offer. I look forward to seeing all of you at the many upcoming events, starting with our Law Day Breakfast Meeting on Wednesday, May 2nd at the Harrisburg Hilton where our special guest will be the Honorable David Freed, United States Attorney for the Middle District.

First Lady of the Dauphin County Court, Rose Natale, celebrating her 90th year with Judge Jeannine Turgeon. Best wishes Rose from the DCBA!

PA OFFICE OF OPEN RECORDS (“OOR”) LAUNCHES AGENCY OPEN RECORDS OFFICER DATABASE

Please see below message sent to us to share with our members from Susan Etter, Director of County Bar Services of the Pennsylvania Bar Association on behalf of the PA Office of Open Records.

“PA Office of Open Records (“OOR”) to launch Agency Open Records Officer Database

The Office of Open Records (“OOR”) is launching a searchable, online database of Agency Open Records Officer (“AORO”) contact information for every agency in the Commonwealth. The AORO database will allow the public to contact the correct AORO to request agency records and will ensure that the OOR can contact AOROs in the event an appeal is filed with the OOR. As part of the new online database, agencies can also update their AORO information online.

The OOR will launch the online AORO search function to the public on April 16, 2018. Prior to the launch date, the OOR is asking that all agencies review and confirm their AORO contact information at the following link: <http://openrecords.pa.gov/AORO/>

To review your agency’s contact information, search your agency’s name and click the edit icon next to your agency, then click submit. All emails associated with the account will receive a confirmation e-mail. Detailed step-by-step instructions are also available on the OOR’s website. The OOR will review and confirm any changes within five business days.

If you have any difficulty accessing the online registration form or have any other questions about the process, please contact the OOR at (717) 346-9903 or openrecords@pa.gov.

The OOR also provides many Right to Know Law resources on its website, <http://openrecords.pa.gov>, including OOR Final Determinations, court decisions, agency guides, sample affidavits, forms, and numerous other documents related to the RTKL.”

MEMORIAL SERVICE

In accordance with Article II, Section 1 of the Dauphin County Bar Association By-Laws, Special Memorial Services in honor of

Robert B. Hoffman

Paul L. Zeigler

Theresa B. Male

Donn L. Snyder

has been scheduled in Courtroom One of the Dauphin County Court House on Wednesday, May 16, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. followed by a reception in the Lawyers Lounge.

All members are strongly encouraged to attend these services. Your participation demonstrates respect for our former colleagues and commitment to one of the finest traditions of our Bar Association.

You may read the written remarks from the Memorial on our website and in the June Newsletter once remarks are received.

To All Members of the Dauphin County Bar Association:

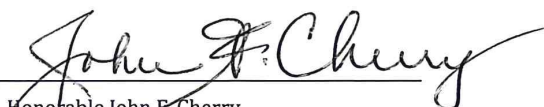

Each year during the month of May, our nation celebrates Law Day. The purpose of Law Day is to educate people of all ages about the American legal system. In its annual Law Day celebration, the American Bar Association hopes to accomplish this goal by encouraging lawyers and judges to visit their local schools and teach students about this year's theme: "Separation of Powers: Framework for Freedom".

The Dauphin County Bar Association and the American Bar Association are working together to ensure that lawyers and judges visit each school district in Dauphin County during this year's celebration. Last year we had 32 volunteers visited 71 local classrooms in order to educate our youth about the great freedoms that we, as a nation, are afforded. The Honorable John F. Cherry, Anthony M. Hoover, Chair, Young Lawyers Section, and I would like to encourage your participation in this year's program so that we can ensure that an attorney or judge will be available to visit each and every classroom that wishes to participate.

If you would like to volunteer, visit the ABA website by copying and pasting the following link: http://www.americanbar.org/groups/public_education/initiatives awards/law-day.html. At this website, you can download a lesson plan. There are links to lesson plans appropriate for students from elementary through high school.

Once it is available, DCBA members will be sent a list of schools and grades. We ask that you make two selections in order of preference and send an email to Kendra at kendra@dcbpa.org to request your preferred classes. She will respond with the appropriate contact information and you will need to contact the teacher directly to set up a mutually convenient date and time for your visit. While Law Day is officially observed on May 1, 2018 the classroom visits can be held at any time in May.

We hope that we can count on your cooperation and involvement in making Law Day 2018 a success! If you would like to acquire more information, visit the Pennsylvania Bar Association website at: <https://www.pabar.org/public/education/lawday/lawdayinformation.asp>

PRO BONO ATTORNEYS HONORED BY BENCH

In our last newsletter, we published the annual list of attorneys, paralegals, law students, and law firms that participated in our Pro Bono Program during the 2017 calendar year. Unfortunately, we failed to include the following names in this important list:

Pamela K. Bishop
Ian R. Brinkman
James P. DeAngelo
Brian P. Downey

Robert Gavin
Lisa Hopkins
Maria Kennison
John F. King

Lauren Hartley Martin
Tyler Ritchie

We apologize for our mistake. While we strive to assure the accuracy of this list, please notify us with any other corrections or omissions. Again, we apologize for our errors. Thank you.

All the 2017 pro bono participants were recognized at a special invitation-only Pro Bono Reception hosted by President Judge Richard A. Lewis on April 25, 2018.

We also include their names on the annual Pro Bono Honor Roll, which is displayed at the Bar Association as you enter the dining room on the second floor.

Special thanks to the judges and legal community leaders who gathered to thank the 2017 Pro Bono Participants. Their visible support is a critical component of our Pro Bono Program's success.

Sandy Ballard, Esquire, Public Services Coordinator

AND THE SURVEY SAYS... YOUR PRO BONO WORK PROVIDES HOPE

Often, the area of greatest pro bono need is custody. Like many counties, Dauphin County Bar Association and MidPenn Legal Services offer monthly Pro Se Custody Clinics. For decades, the DCBA has hosted Clinics where pro bono attorneys help parents with the paperwork. At each two-hour Clinic, four to six pro bono attorneys help roughly 8 to 12 parents complete the custody court forms.

Five years ago, the Pro Bono Program launched Clinic Part 2 with the goal of helping parents better prepare for their Custody Conference. After a brief overview about the law, parents work with a small group of attorneys and other parents to review their custody situation and develop at least three schedule options. Other parents in the group are encouraged to play Devil's Advocate and offer suggestions as to why an option might not work.

The parent's feedback from both Clinics has been universally positive:

- "Great program for people that need it, as myself. Without this program and the steps, I don't know what I would have done. They gave me options and great help."
- "This clinic helped me a lot & gave me hope!"
- "Keep doing what y'all do!"
- "Thanks Mrs. Fran!!"
- "Was very helpful"

Even pro bono attorneys express their appreciation for the opportunity to help those in need:

"Thanks for conducting such a valuable clinic this morning. I'm always proud to assist folks in navigating these muddy waters, and glad for the experience."

If you are interested in assisting parents at Custody Clinics as part of your pro bono work, please contact Sandy Ballard 717-232-7536 ext. 7 or Sandy@DCBA-pa.org

PRO BONO PFA DEFENDANT PROCEDURAL OVERVIEW

We are delighted to announce a new pro bono option for Dauphin County attorneys - the Pro Bono PFA Defendant Procedural Overview. Every Wednesday from 8:15 to 9:00 am, one or two pro bono attorneys (mostly criminal attorneys) are needed to provide a PFA Defendant Procedural Overview before PFA Court with Judges Morris and Marsico. PFA Court is at 25 S. Front Street on the 7th floor.

The Pro Bono Attorneys speak to the PFA defendants about what to expect in court that day. The attorneys follow an outline of topics to cover and make it quite clear that they are not able to provide legal advice about or discuss the individual cases. The overview takes about twenty minutes.

Attorneys with criminal and/or PFA experience are needed for this exciting new pro bono option. The pro bono attorney has no ongoing responsibilities. Since this is not a MidPenn Legal Services program, attorneys are not covered by MidPenn's malpractice insurance. Available Dates are

May 16	June 27
May 23	July 2
May 30	July 11
June 13	July 18

For more information or to sign up, please contact Peg Simok, Esquire, Judicial Law Clerk to The Honorable Royce L. Morris, 25 South Front Street; 7th Floor, 717-780-6652, MSimok@dauphinc.org.
